

WILMINGTON, DE (May 9, 2017) - The Delaware Captive Insurance Association's (DCIA) Spring Forum provided the venue for Delaware Insurance Commissioner Trinidad Navarro to make the announcement that Steve Kinion will continue his leadership as Captive Bureau Director for another year.

Mr. Kinion is a recognized leader and effective advocate for both Delaware as a domicile, and the captive insurance industry in general. DCIA is pleased he will be staying with the Bureau, continuing to provide stability and ensuring Delaware's continued success as a leading domicile.

The Delaware Captive Insurance Association serves as the unified voice of the captive insurance industry in Delaware and supports the development and growth of the industry through marketing, networking, education, and legislative initiatives. Further information including key contacts and upcoming events can be found at www.delawarecaptive.org.